

“An Unbreakable Promise”

Exodus: The Redeemer & The Redeemed

Exodus 1:1-22

1. Each one of us faces a circumstances we can be tempted to believe that God is not keeping his promise.
2. We all must seek to know the Lord.
3. Each bitter providence of God is designed to drive us to the promises of God.
  1. One Unremarkable Unnamed Pharaoh.
  2. Two Remarkable Named Women, Shiphrah and Puah
  3. Two Fears
4. Opposition presents us with the option to lean into the promises of God.
5. God has a creative purpose in the trials we face---and small opportunities for faithfulness to his promise.

+ + +

Discussion Questions

1. In what ways do we respond like Pharaoh when confronting fear, obstacles, or challenges in our own lives? How does Jesus free us from fear to cultivate faith in our trials?
2. How do the actions of Shiphrah and Puah illustrate unwavering faithfulness and courage, even when faced with opposition, and what can we learn from their story about the impact such steadfastness can have on shaping future generations and narratives?
3. How does the apparent breaking and eventual keeping of God's promises, as seen in the story of Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection, provide a perspective on understanding challenging times when it appears that God is not keeping His promises to us?

