Announcements

For the Future. We still need an additional $282,000 in pledges so that the construction on our new sanctuary, expanded children's ministry space and additional ministry and training areas can be completed. Any gift, whether large or small, is necessary to bring us to the finish line!

Redeemer 3-Year Anniversary, Today, immediately following equip classes. Come celebrate three years of God's faithfulness to Redeemer with a church-wide fall picnic at Monte Sano State Park! We'll supply the burgers, hot dogs, and sides—you just bring yourself, your family, and a friend.

Men's Porch Night, Friday, November 6th, 7:00–9:00 pm. At Porch Nights, men bring their cultural questions—and their unchurched friends—to discuss how the Gospel speaks to all areas of life. It expands our sense of belonging and introduces others to the family. For more information, email thomas@redeemerhuntsville.org.

Song of Response The Church's One Foundation (select verses)

The Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord
She is His new creation
By water and the Word
From heav'n He came and sought her
To be His holy bride
With His own blood He bought her
And for her life He died

Elect from every nation
Yet one o'er all the earth
Her charter of salvation
One Lord one faith one birth
One holy name she blesses
Partakes one holy food
And to one hope she presses
With every grace endued

Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won O happy ones and holy Lord give us grace that we Like them the meek and lowly
On high may dwell with Thee

Call to Worship

Psalm 48:1–3

1 Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised in the city of our God!
His holy mountain, 2 beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth,
Mount Zion, in the far north,
the city of the great King.
3 Within her citadels God has made himself known as a fortress.

Song of Praise

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

A mighty fortress is our God
A bulwark[1] never failing
Our Helper He amidst the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing
For still our ancient foe
Doth seek to work us woe
His craft and pow'r are great
And armed with cruel hate
On earth is not his equal

Did we in our own strength confide
Our striving would be losing
Were not the right Man on our side
The Man of God's own choosing Dost ask who that may be Christ Jesus it is He
The Lord of hosts His name
From age to age the same
And He must win the battle

And though this world with devils filled
Should threaten to undo us
We will not fear for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us
The prince of darkness grim

[1] A bulwark is a defensive wall.

Who can teach the One who knows all things
Who can fathom all His wondrous deeds

Who has felt the nails upon His hands
Bearing all the guilt of sinful man
God eternal humbled to the grave
Jesus Savior risen now to reign

1. Our shared life (12–14)

2. Our shared necessity (15–20)

3. Our shared dependence (21–16)

Now and ever we confess
Christ our hope in life and death

What truth can calm the troubled soul
God is good God is good
Where is His grace and goodness known
In our great Redeemer's blood
Who holds our faith when fears arise
Who stands above the stormy trial
Who sends the waves that bring us nigh
Unto the shore the rock of Christ

Unto the grave what will we sing
Christ He lives Christ He lives
And what reward will heaven bring Everlasting life with Him
There we will rise to meet the Lord
Then sin and death will be destroyed
And we will feast in endless joy
When Christ is ours forevermore

Song of Hope

Behold Our God

Who has held the oceans in His hands
Who has numbered every grain of sand
Kings and nations tremble at His voice
All creation rises to rejoice

Behold our God seated on His throne
Come let us adore Him
Behold our King nothing can compare
Come let us adore Him

Who has given counsel to the Lord
Who can question any of His words

We tremble not for him
His rage we can endure
For lo his doom is sure
One little word shall fell Him

That word above all earthly pow'rs
No thanks to them abideth
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Through Him Who with us sideth
Let goods and kindred go
This mortal life also
The body they may kill God's truth abideth still
His Kingdom is forever

Scripture Reading

1 Samuel 22:6–23

Saul Kills the Priests at Nob

6 Now Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men who were with him. Saul was sitting at Gibeah under the tamarisk tree on the height with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him. 7 And Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, people of Benjamin; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, 8 that all of you have conspired against me? No one discloses to me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse. None of you is sorry for me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day." 9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who stood by the servants of Saul, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, 10 and he inquired of the LORD for him and gave him provisions and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."
11 Then the king sent to summon Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were at Nob, and all of them came to the king. 12 And Saul said, "Hear now, son of Ahitub." And he answered, "Here I am, my lord." 13 And Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread and a sword and have inquired of God for him, so that he has risen against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?" 14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, "And who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and captain over your bodyguard, and honored in your house? 15 Is today the first time that I have inquired of God for him? No! Let not the king impute anything to his servant or to all the house of my father, for your servant has known nothing of all this, much or little." 16 And the king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house." 17 And the king said to the guard who stood about him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David, and they knew that he fled and did not disclose it to me." But the servants of the king would not put out their hand to strike the priests of the LORD. 18 Then the king said to Doeg, "You turn and strike the priests." And Doeg the Edomite turned and struck down the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five persons who wore the linen ephod. 19 And Nob, the city of the priests, he put to the sword; both man and woman, child and infant, ox, donkey and sheep, he put to the sword.

20 But one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David. 21 And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD. 22 And David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have occasioned the death of all the persons of your father's house. 23 Stay with me; do not be afraid, for he who seeks my life seeks your life. With me you shall be in safekeeping."

Affirmation of Faith

Orthodox Catechism (1680)

Q 135: Why do Christians need to pray?

A: Because prayer is the most important part of the thankfulness God requires of us.[2] And also because God gives his grace and Holy Spirit to those who pray continually and groan inwardly, asking God for these gifts and thanking him for them.[3]

Q 136: How does God want us to pray so that he will listen to us?

A: First, we must pray from the heart to the one true God only, who has revealed himself in his Word. We must ask for everything he has commanded us to ask for.[4] Second, we must confess our need and misery, hide nothing, and humble ourselves before his majesty.[5] Third, we must rest on this firm foundation: even though we do not deserve it, God will surely hear our prayer because of Christ our Lord. That is what he promised us in his Word.[6]

Q137: What did God command us to pray for?

A: Everything we need, spiritually and physically,[7] as embraced in the prayer Christ our Lord himself taught us.

Confession and Assurance of Pardon

Ephesians 2:4–8

4 But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, 5 even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— 6 and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, 7 so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.
8 For by grace you have been saved through faith.

Pastoral Prayer

Song of Salvation

Christ Our Hope In Life And Death

What is our hope in life and death
Christ alone Christ alone
What is our only confidence
That our souls to Him belong
Who holds our days within His hand
What comes apart from His command
And what will keep us to the end
The love of Christ in which we stand

O sing hallelujah
Our hope springs eternal
O sing hallelujah
